Dealing with Anxiety - Matthew 6:25-34 Rev. Dr. Ernest Brodie Jr.

We have all experienced times of being anxious and fearful and feeling paralyzed over events happening in our lives. We can see the tragedy coming and realize we have no control and are without any hope. Yet, the Word of God tells us not to worry or let fear take over our lives. Our relationship to and with God helps us during trying times.

1. It is not necessary for Christians to worry, because we belong to God (Matthew 6:25). God says we are "to take no thought" or stop worrying. This is a command. Most of what we worry about, we cannot control. When we look back, we can see God has provided. Remember He is in control, we are to rest in His care for us.
2. It is not necessary for Christians to worry, because worry changes nothing. God provides for even the birds and flowers (Matthew 6:26). Matthew 6:27 has nothing to do with our height, but actually with the length of our lives. God is in control of our lives. He provides for all our needs, and we are to be content by recognizing that what we have belongs to Him (Matthew 6:27-32). We are to rest in the fact that God promises to supply what we need (Philippians 4:19).
3. It is not necessary for Christians to worry, because our future is with God (Matthew 6:33-34). 1 Corinthians 15, the resurrection chapter, assures us of our resurrection and future with God. Colossians 3:1-4: "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory."

We need to learn the difference between the use of common sense (cautious planning) and worry. We must trust God with our circumstances, remember He is sovereign in all things, and be thankful for the blessings He provides. May we do the best with what we can control and not be consumed by worry. Trust God and let Him carry the load. He is our security.
