The Reformation
Rev. Dr. Ernest Brodie Jr.

The Reformation profoundly changed history and yet few are aware of its impact. It was a 16th century movement in Christendom that purged the church of abuses and doctrinal errors and returned to the teachings of the Bible. All of the early reformers were educated in the Catholic Church and served as priests. All were transformed by reading the Word of God.

Doctrinal Unity of the Reformers:

- Scripture Alone (Sola Scriptura) - The Reformers all agreed that the Bible would be their sole source for faith and practice.
- Christ Alone (Solo Christo) - The Reformers clearly understood that salvation came through Christ and Christ alone (Acts 4:12).
- Grace Alone (Solo Gratia) - The Reformers came to the realization that salvation was based on God's grace or unmerited favor (Ephesians 2:8-9).
- Faith Alone (Solo Fide) - The Reformers believed that salvation was appropriated by faith alone.
- Glory to God Alone (Soli Deo Gloria) - The foundational truth that these Reformers believed in was that all related to the glory of God. Their very existence and the purpose for which they were born ultimately pointed to the glory of God.

The greatest result of the Reformation by far relates to the preaching of the gospel of Christ, for it is the gospel that transforms hearts. Because of the Reformation, the gospel is preached worldwide.
